Projects

MesaAwaits (React, Ruby on Rails, postgreSQL, JWT, Bootstrap, Google Maps API, Geolocation API, Yelp API) ⧉
Web application that enables users to view, favorite, and book reservations at restaurants.
- Combined a Rails API backend with a React frontend to develop an application in which a user can book reservations at over five million restaurants.
- Utilized Yelp, Google Maps, and Geolocation APIs to display restaurants according to user's location or their search input.
- Incorporated Active Record validations, BCrypt, and Json Web Tokens to implement secure and persistent authentication.

OHOHOH (Java Script, Ruby on Rails, postgreSQL, HTML, CSS, Dog.ceo API) ⧉
Open Hands Open Hearts Open Home facilitates the adoption of pets for both users and agency.
- Created a single page application, in five days, that uses JavaScript events to render multiple pages.
- Resolved issue in which a pet pending adoption displayed as available by updating the database, replacing Adopt Me button with "Pending Adoption", and restructuring code to check for pet availability.
- Automated program to update adoption availability, request, approvals, or denials for both OHOHOH and users' profiles.

BeatDrop (Ruby on Rails, SQLite, BCrypt, Bootstrap, CSS) ⧉
Platform for discovering and sharing new music.
- Applied MVC architecture to engineer a full stack application in one week.
- Initialized or retrieved user data to integrate with BCrypt and sessions to authorize and persist user login.
- Customized RESTful routes in order to validate users and artists.
